Spittal Community Centre

Spittal

Facilities

The premises are leased by Spittal Improvement Trust from the synod of the United Reform Church. The premises were deconsecrated in 2019 and are now available for use by the community.

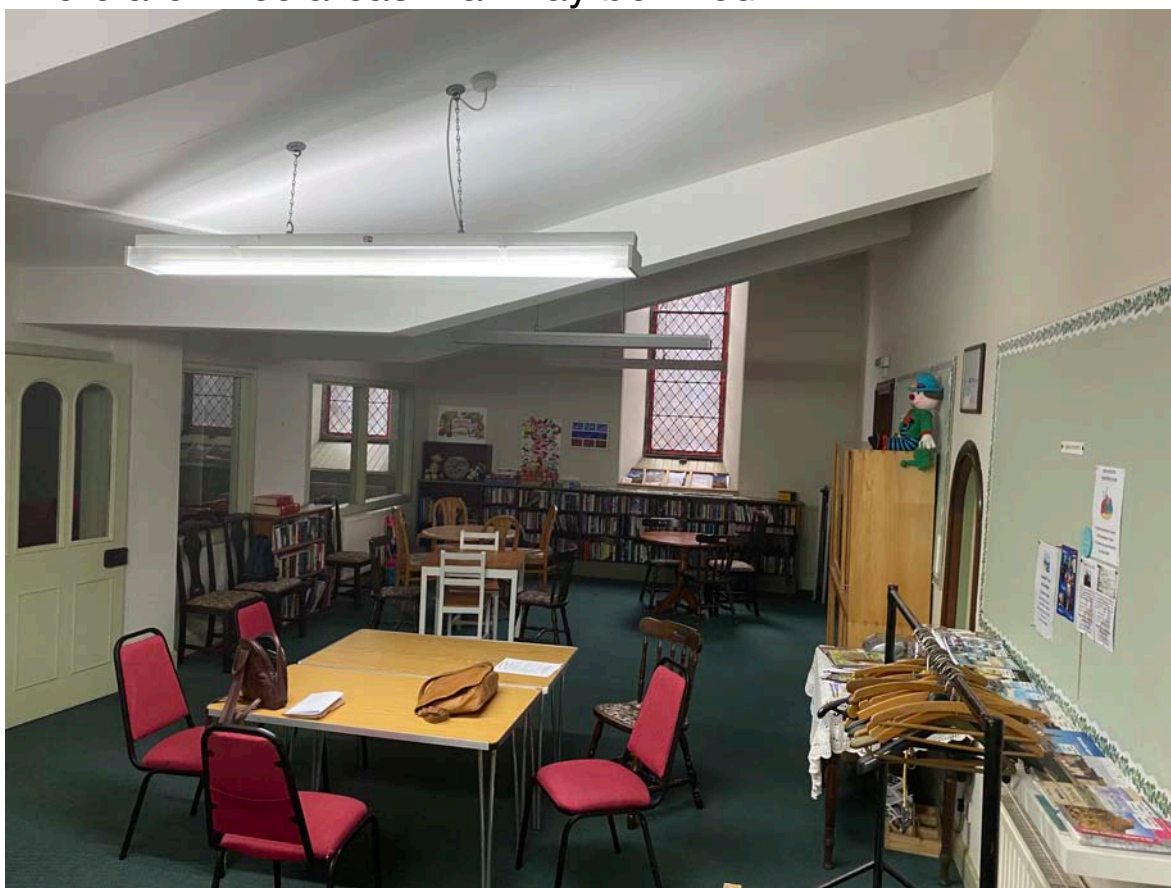

All the areas are on the ground floor and there is full disabled access to all.

Access to the hall is from Middle Street and to the Aidan Room and the Auditorium from Main Street. Disabled toilets are situated at the front and the rear of the premises

Location – north end of the Main Street, post code TD151QY.
Convenient free parking at Sandstell Road Car Park

There are three areas that may be hired:

The Aidan Room

1). The Aidan Room. This room is at the front of the building and has a small kitchen and service counter suitable for food preparation and serving but not suitable for primary cooking. It can accommodate 30 guests and can be used as a cafeteria.

2) Auditorium

Auditorium from dais

This area has a raised dais with a lectern that may be used for religious services, lectures, and video presentations. It can accommodate up to 120 seated guests. It has excellent acoustics and would be well suited to musical events. The seats are removable and therefore suitable for non-seated events such as fetes, displays and craft fairs.

It has an induction loop for the deaf.

3) Hall:

View of the Hall from the stage

The hall lies at the back of the premises and has a separate entrance from Middle Street. It has a wooden floor and is ideally suited for use with youth groups, fitness classes, dance groups or coffee mornings. There is a stage at one end and with seating installed could hold an audience of 100 for theatrical purposes. It also has an induction loop for the deaf.

Attached to the hall there is another small kitchen suitable for food preparation but not for primary cooking.
